

LAUNESCAPE

A Celebration of the River Laune, from the skies to below ground and its contribution to the life and culture of Killorglin. Music, dancing, storytelling and poetry. Presented by SOL.

www.saveourlaune.org

20th August 2016
Library Place Killorglin
11am - 4pm

Who will be there:

Eddie Lenihan: Local historian, folklorist and story teller.

Tom O'Sullivan: Musician, poet and Kerry on Walking.

Sean and Amy: Sean Nos dancing.

Kingdom Falconry with birds of prey that once graced our skies in their thousands.

The Laune Anglers and their intimate knowledge of the river.

Killorglin rowing club and their 'Wildflower' boat.

Killorglin Beekeepers showing bees at work and their importance for pollination.

Tidy Towns bio-diversity drive, barn owl and swift projects.

Bats of Ireland with Conor Kelleher.

NPWS showcasing the rich wildlife connected with the river.

Hogsprickle hedgehog sanctuary.

SOL Voluntary group showcasing the river's newest arrivals. Invasive species.

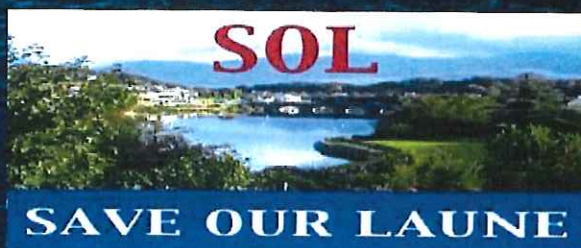

Inland Fisheries showcasing invertebrates, crucial for the health of all the River.

Astellas pharmaceuticals showing how big business can contribute to protecting our wildlife.

The Japanese Knotweed company: Management of Invasive species.

An Chomhairle Oidhreachta
The Heritage Council

4 Sean Scoil
Sunhill Rd.
Killorglin

Phone: 086 104 5979